Brighton

A beautiful, naturally milled grain and saturated color palette make Brighton the perfect choice for a soft, authentic leather. Tanned in Thailand with a special tanning ingredient that imparts it with a soft and supple feel, this leather exudes subtle elegance and luxury. Its overall appearance is marked by a bold, natural grain that highlights its rich saturated colors. Hides originate from the United Kingdom, are heavier in weight (1.44MM-1.6MM) and will average 50 sq. ft. per hide.
