

LEATHER SINCE 1933

Venetian

A collection of Old World Italian embossings designed on our Brompton leather. Crafted from English Bull hides, this leather undergoes five separate finishing operations that incorporate a range of waxes and oils. The result is a leather with a soft hand, tremendous pull up, and smooth polished surface. Most embossings have a firm hand, but the Venetian Collection is soft and supple. Its unique pull up quality also adds to the beauty of this leather.
